MEDICAL.

DR. C. W. MOORE'S
Medical and Surgical Institute.
Commercial Street, a few doors below Kearney Str.,
Attending and Resident Physician,
C. W. MOORE, M. D.,
Late Surgeon, U. S. A., Quurantine Physician New Orleans and Boston, Lecturer on Morbid Anatomy and Diseases of Women and Children, Member of the Massachusetts Medical Society, etc., etc.

DR. MOORE WOULD RESPECTFULLY INform the people of California that he has established an Institute for the

CURE OF DISEASES
WHETHER CHRONIC OR ACUTE
AT 641 COMMERCIAL STREET,
A few doors below Kearney, where he may be consulted at all hours.

DISEASES OF THE UTERINE OR OVARIAN FUNCTIONS,
Characterized by irregular, suppressed, or painful menstruation, pain in the sides and back, sensation of weight in the pelvis, weakness, nervous headache, leucorrhœa or whites, are treated on scientific principles, and a prompt and permanent cure effected.

NERVOUS AFFECTIONS,
Such as neuralgia, paralysis, giddiness, dimness of vision, etc., will receive special attention.

DISEASES OF THE SEXUAL ORGANS,
Male or female, are treated with all the skill and appliances which modern science has made available.—Nauseous drugs and nostrums, which are so often administered for weeks without benefit, are entirely discarded, and a few days only are required to accomplish a perfect cure.

Secondary and hereditary affections, scrofula in all its manifold forms, dyspepsia, emaciation and debility, treated with certain and unfailing remedies—speedily expelling all corrupt humors, and imparting a healthy tone to the system by purifying the blood, regulating the secretions, and reinvigorating the vital powers.

Twenty years practice in different parts of the world has given the Doctor advantages possessed by few, and his remarkable success warrants a promise of effectual cure.

Medicines, with full directions, will be sent to any part of the State on receipt of letter describing symptoms.

An infirmary is connected with the establishment, where patients who desire may receive board and constant attention during their sickness, thus avoiding the inconvenience of a hotel. Kind and attentive nurses will be employed, and no means will be left untried to give full satisfaction. Consultation free.

TO THE LADIES.—Females in trouble, or afflicted with disease, are respectfully invited to call on Dr. MOORE, and consult him about their troubles. His uniform success in his treatment of Female Suppression and kindred diseases is a sufficient guarantee of his scientific attainments. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but call at once, and save yourself from future suffering and misery. Consultations are confidential, and his offices are arranged for the strictest privacy. Address, C. W. MOORE, M. D.

THE HUMAN HAIR
HAS LONG BEEN THE STUDY OF THE most scientific men of the age, from the fact that close study generally causes the hair to fall off prematurely; and, in consequence, they have given the subject a portion of their valuable time, trying to invent some method to regain their lost looks; but all their labor was in vain, until
PROFESSOR CROCKETT
after many years of hard study devoted to this one subject, has produced an article that WILL MAKE THE HAIR GROW, and which, by its use as a Hair Dressing, will effectually and always prevent its loss—even to extreme old age. Happily, the AMYGDALINE
while possessing these virtues, is most delightful and agreeable without regard to their virtue. The hair, when diseased, becomes dry, and commences to turn grey, which is caused by the non-secretion by the capillary glands of a peculiar oil. It has therefore been thought and believed that if the glands were stimulated into action, they would still give a sufficient supply of nourishment to the hair; but, alas! they forget one very important law of nature, viz: that ALL STIMULANTS HAVE THEIR REACTION; and the more the glands were stimulated—the sooner the final loss of the much prized locks. The principle of the preparation invented by Professor Crockett is entirely the opposite—instead of stimulating the capillary glands, he feeds them with the substance they require, and, in turn, the hair is fed by them—on the same principle as giving water to a flower. All we will say to those who are timid about trying new preparations is, that we strictly guarantee the AMYGDALINE to be entirely free from all stimulants, and is as harmless as filtered water, and can be used on the smallest infant. As a
Hair Dressing
it is unequalled by any the world has yet produced. It keeps the head entirely free of dandruff, eruption, pimples—imparting to the hair a beautiful glossy softness not obtained by an known compound. It will also be found both pleasant and useful as a Cosmetiques, rpassing cold cream and face lotions in its effects; for chaps, sore breast and nipples we know of no remedy that is equal to it.
THE PERFUME
used is such that the AMYGDALINE will always retain, it will not become rancid by age; in fact, it is perfect in every particular. Professor Crockett's Amygdaline can be had of all druggists and dealers everywhere. Price 50 cents.
Ask for Crockett's Amygdaline, and take no other. se25-6m

The California Fly-Killing Liquid.
FLY PAPER KILLS ITS THOUSANDS. THE Liquid Fly Killer its tens of thousands. This preparation for killing flies gives the greatest satisfaction of anything ever yet used. It is now improved to the highest killing point. It is of such a nature and so speedy of effects, that the flies will not spot the walls and windows, which makes the use of other preparations so objectionable.

THE NEW GOSPEL OF PEACE.

ACCORDING TO BENJAMIN.

CHAPTER IX.

I. And on the next day, which was the fourth day of the seventh month, which was held as a solemn festival in memory of deliverance from the king of the land of Jonbool, this was noised throughout all the land of Unculpsalm.

2. And the Kopurheads were astonished and dismayed; but all the rest of the men of Unculpsalm, even of the Dimmichrats, rejoiced greatly. For they said, Behold the end of this war beginneth to appear; and now we see hope that this nation shall not be destroyed and brought to naught.

3. Likewise were even they of the merchants of Gotham and of Cooacre city and of the new Athens which cared more for their gain than for the freedom and honor of their nation exceeding glad, and the noble army of Counteractors in the province of Schadbellee which did continually praise Abraham, were triumphant, and the people of the city of Swine-sin-naughty gave themselves yet more unto the killing and eating of the unclean beast, and making ready for the armies of Unculpsalm to eat, until their faces shone and their eyes stood out with fatness.

4. And Augustus the money-changer and all they of the circumcision which were of his faction were wroth and said, Behold the abomination which followeth the victones of the armies of Unculpsalm.

5. And likewise on that day the Kopurhedds, and certain other of the Dimmichrats were gathered together in the great hall of the men singers and women singers of Gotham, which sang unto the Gothamites music that they comprehended not, in a language that they understood not, that the Governor of the province might make a speech unto them.

6. And he spake unto them and said many things, which indeed were one thing in many shapes, to wit, that Abraham and his counsellors were tyrants, that Clement and ths others of his sort whom the officers of Abraham had taken in custody were martyrs, that the Phiretahs should be compromised unto, and that the land was the inheritance of the Dimmichrats. But he condemned not them which set at naught the Great Covenant by making war upon the rulers of the land, neither stirred he up any man to strive for the honor and the glory and the freedom of the land, nor spake he one word of cheer or of thankfulness for the victory of George the Mede which filled the land with joy on that great day of the nation.

7. And from that day because of his speech, and because he yet made great pretence of love unto the land of Unculpsalm, they that were not Kopur-hedds or Pahdees called him not See More or Say More, but Seemer. For they said, He would seem to be that which he is not.

8. Likewiso also did Phernandiwud, and Benjamin the Scribe, and all the straightest of the sect of the new gospel of peace. For they said, He speaketh with us, yet he striveth also for the friendship of them who prefer war and the nation to peace and the everlasting Niggah. Behold he is a seemer and not a doer. Wherefore his name thereafter became Seemer.

9. And soon after the chief men of the Kopur-hedds met together in Gotham to see what they should do; for they were in great extremity. And they came sorrowfully and with their countenances cast down, all of them. And they that were of this assembly were only they that had embraced the new gospel of peace.

10. And they suffered among them Assohkald Eddittah the scribe, who, to gain the World, had lost his own soul.

11. Now they suffered him to come among them because they had bought him to use him as they would, to publish their doctrine to the people of Gotham. For aforetime he had sought to make himself serviceable unto Abraham and his counsellors, but they regarded him not.

12. Wherefore he said unto the Kopur-hedds, Buy me, and I will serve you. And they bought him.

13. And Augustus the money-changer lent the money wherewithal to buy him. For he said, Mayhap the gospel of peace shall prevail throughout the land: and then may Assohkald Eddittah change his name, even as I have done, like unto my forefathers, and become Areel Eddittah. Then shall I own Areel Eddittah; and he shall write that which shall make a market for my moneys, and I shall receive mine own with usury. Thus was it that the chief men of the Kopur-hedds suffered Assohkald Eddittah among them.

14. But Phernandiwud came not into this assembly.

15. For there was variance between Phernandiwud and the men of Tamunee, and between Phernandiwud and some of the chief men of the Kopur-hedds. Because Phernandiwud had claimed for the men of his following the chief offices in the city of Gotham and in the province of Gotham.

16. And many had been given unto them, but he claimed yet the more. And of them that received the places many got only a part of the wages thereof. And when it was brought before the judges no man could tell what had become of the residue.

17. But the men of Tammunee said, Peradventure Phernandiwud he knoweth; for his walk is slantindicular. And when they said peradventure, they thrust the tongue into the cheek and pointed with the thumb over the left shoulder. For such is the manner of the men of Tamunnee.

18. Wherefore Phernandiwud came not into this assembly. Yet he was not cast down but rejoiced in secret; For he said, Behold there are but two ways in this matter; and the way of Abraham is one way, and my way is another. For he was a crafty man, and wise in his generation.

19. And when the chief men of the Kopur-hedds saw that they were all assembled, they shut to the door and set down to take counsel together.

20. And each man turned to his neighbor and looked that he should have spoken. But no man spake; for their hearts were troubled and they were sorely perplexed. And silence fell upon them.

21. But after a long time the chief man among them arose and said, My brethren, our case is very desperate. Had the Lord pleased to have defeated the army of George the Mede, we were prepared therefor, and could have meekly borne that dispensation.

22. In defeat we could have found some comfort; but what shall we do with a victory? And he sat down.

23. Then each man turned to his neighbor and said, What shall we do with a victory? But no man answered. And again great silence fell upon them; and they looked vainly each in the face of the other.

24. Then arose a scribe whose surname was Primus, (not he whose beard was like Aaron's, and who dwelt among the merchants,) and he opened his mouth and said,

25. For the wickedness and the iniquity of this people we do suffer victory this day, in that they have listened unto the ministers of Beelzebub, who preached deliverance unto the captive, and have declared that no more of the land of Unculpsalm shall be blessed with slavery, and in the perversity of their hearts and the wickedness of their imaginations have sought to take away the everlasting Niggah.

26. Yea, verily, and have gone after strange gods, honoring Charles the Summoner, rather than Prestenbruux, and Philip of Athens rather than Isaiah the Hittite, who is a man of peace and who loveth free speech; and moreover have fought foolishly that their nation might not be destroyed, as it deserved for all their transegressions.

27. Wherefore let there be a day appointed of fasting, of humiliation, and of prayer, to make atonement for the sins of this people, and peradventure it shall be that their iniquity shall be forgiven, and that there shall no more grievances offend the land.

28. And again their was silence for a little while, and then there was heard a voice, (and it was the voice of Hiram the publicun,) saying, Let not the people fast, for it is unprofitable. Let there be humiliation and prayer; for after humiliation men need wine to make their hearts glad again; and he that prayeth thirsteth. But fasting is an oppression unto me, and moreover we shall offend them that sell meat in Gotham, and the people of Swine-sin-naughty, so that they will turn away from Jeph and serve Abraham. So they consented not to this counsel.

29. Then arose another, who said, Can we not entreat the king of the Pahlivoos, Nah Pohlion, whom all the world feareth, to help us, even as he hath helped the people of Mecsichoh? For he hath sent an army into Mecsichoh, and he hath overcome the people of Mecsichoh, and hath driven out the rulers whom they had chosen, and put to the sword all them that resisted him, and hath been gracious unto them, and given offices unto them that submitted to him and compromised themselves unto him.

30. Might we not then compromise ourselves unto him, and win him to enter our land with an army; and then might he join himself unto our friends the Phiretahs and be victorious over the armies of Unculpsalm, and drive out the rulers which the men of Unculpsalm have chosen, even Abraham and his counsellors, and be gracious unto us, and give offices unto us, as it hath been in Mecsichoh, and so should we attain our hearts' desire.

31. But Elijah who smelleth the battle afar off in the tents of Tammunee answered and said, Thou speakest even as a fool speaketh. This people feareth not the king of the Pahlivoos; for the men of the land of Unculpsalm are not as the men of Mecsichoh.

32. Moreover they know that he is the nephew of his uncle, and that he hath sworn to do in all things even as his uncle. And did not his uncle bone a part of every land which he entered? Think ye that this people will suffer the king of the Pahlivoos to do this thing?

33. (Now to bone, being interpreted, is to rob, and to rob land in the speech of the men of Jonbool, to colonize, and in the speech of the men of Unculpsalm, though they be the same tongue, to annex.)

34. And Elijah spake thus; for because that he was not a Kopur-hedd. Yet they admitted him to their council; for he was a great man among the Dimmichrats, and they feared him.

35. Moreover they remembered the wrath of the people against them when they went privily unto the ambassador of the land of Jonbool that he might help them to bring about the ceasing of the war without the putting down of the rebellion. And they said, Alas! this may not be, and we cannot ask the king of the Pahlivoos to help our friends the Phiretahs with an army. For this people is a stiff-necked people, and daily more and more it is given over to the accursed spirit Bak Bohn, so that it will not suffer the kings of other nations to help us. And our scribes must no more praise the doings of the king of the Pahlivoos in Mecsichoh, as they have done thus far, or we shall destroy our faction.

36. Then arose another which was a chief man among the sect which called themselves Knsuvvutivs.

37. Now the Knsuvvutivs were they which when they got into hot water, stayed there that they might not be scalded.

38. And there have been Knsuvvutivs from the beginning of the world, yea though they have all been scalded; and there shall be forever; and they will remain in hot water and suffer no man to pluck them out thereof.

39. And this Knsuuvutiv opened his mouth and said, It is because this war is not waged according to the doctrine of the Knsuvvutivs that we are afflicted with this grievous victory this day; and because Abraham and his counsellors and the men of their inclining do continually struggle and strive to get out of the hot water when they ought to remain quietly therein.

40. Now, therefor, let there be rezzleooshns issued according unto the doctrine of the Knsuvvutivs.

41. (For it was the custom of the men of Unculpsalm when they were not sure that that which they desired was so, to declare solemnly that it was so; and this they called a rezzleooshn.)

42. And let the rezzleooshns be two. And let the first rezzleooshn be, That this people is a Knsuvvutiv people, and that the Knsuvvutivs are in favor of the war.

43. And let the second rezzleooshn be, That the Knsuvvutivs are opposed to all means of carrying on the war.

44. So shall the doctrine of the Knsuvvutivs prevail; and the war shall be conducted according to the doctrine of the Knsuvvutivs, and we shall remain in our hot water, and no more grievous victories shall afflict the land.

45. And this counsel was well pleasing unto the assembly; which being immediately filled with the spirit of Knsuvvutism, sat still and did nothing.

46. But Benjamin the scribe, the brother of Phernandiwud, felt that he was in hot water, he and his faction; and he was not yet sufficiently a Knsuvvutiv to remain therein. So he opened his mouth and said,

47. Behold this nation is in great peril of salvation, and the case is desperate, and something must be done. Let us therefore sell Assohkald Eddittah unto Abraham the honest and his counsellors, and let him serve them and George the Mede even as he hath served Jeph the Repudiator and Robbutleeh, and mayhap this sore calamity may be averted.

48. And when Assohkald Eddittah heard that there was question of somebody buying him, he arose quickly and said, Yea, verily, let Abraham and his counsellors buy thy servant; for the case of this nation and of thy servant is desperate. Yet Augustus the money-changer, and Hiram the publican, and Samuel, whose surname is Brinzmaid, must be content to lose thereby, For because that his case is desperate thy servant will sell himself cheap, yea even cheaper than he did aforetime.

49. Then Benjamin the scribe was wroth, and arose and said, how is this that thou wilt sell thyself cheaper? Didst thou not sell thy soul for promise of the World? Could less have been given or less have been received? (For he was a just man and a holy and eschewed the World, the Flesh and the Devil.) Go to, now; have I not bought thee and sold thee, and do I not know thy value and price?

50. Then was Assohkald Eddittah cast down, and shrank within himself. But Samuel, whose surname was Brinzmaid (it was he who ministered unto the Phiretah woman and showed her the nakedness of the land), took compassion on him, and went to him, and said unto him, Be comforted. Thou canst not be sold again, for Abraham will not buy thee, neither will his counsellors, nor George the Mede. But thou shalt still be Assohkald Eddittah, and mayhap thou mayest become Areel Eddittah; and thou shalt have thy wages.

51. And when he heard that he should have his wages he was comforted, and he thought that the calamity had passed away from the nation. But after that no man regarded him.

52. And it came to pass that after this assembly had continued a long while, and the Kopurhedds had taken much counsel together, they came to no conclusion; for their devices slipped away from them even as water slippeth through the fingers of him that dippeth it with his hand; and they were in sore perplexity. And they dissolved the assembly until another day, when they hoped that wisdom might show herself among them.

53. And when Phernandiwud heard thereof he rejoiced secretly; for he said, Behold, there are but two ways in this matter: and the way of Abraham the honest is one way, and the way of Phernandiwud, who walketh slantindicularly, is the other way. And he knew that in the end they must admit him to their councils.

54. Now at the time when Phernandiwud declared the new gospel of peace unto the men of Gotham, one of Abraham's chief captains, whose name was Ulysses, but whom his soldiers had called Unculpsalm, because of the good service that he had done unto that land, had sat down before a city in the South, and was laying siege to it.

55. And the name of the city was Wickedsburg; for the people thereof were men of blood, and they passed their time in casting lots with dice for gold, and with boasting for gold on pieces of paper spotted with many colors, and in disembowelling each other with knives, and in slaying each other with shooting-irons.

56. And this city stood upon the great river of the land of Unculpsalm, which is called the Father of the Waters, so that ships could not go up or down that river unless they that dwelt in Wickedsburg suffered them.

57. And Ulysses, which was called Unculpsalm, had defeated the armies of the Phiretahs which withstood his march to Wickedsburg, and had scattered them abroad, so that he marched up against the town, and he laid great siege thereto.

58. And the Phiretahs boasted that the city could not be taken, after their manner; and Ulysses took it without boasting, after his manner. And this was also upon the fourth day of the seventh month, which was the solemn festival in the land of Unculpsalm.

59. And it came to pass that on the day before that on which the Kopur-hedds had appointed for the assembling themselves together again, news was brought to Gotham that Ulysses, who was surnamed Unculpsalm, had taken the city of Wickedsburg, and that the host of the Phiretahs therein, with their arms and their engines of war, and all their spoil had fallen into his hands.

60. And again there was great rejoicing throughout all the land of Unculpsalm, save in the land of the Phiretahs, so that even the Kopur-hedds rejoiced with their lips because they feared the people; but in their hearts they were cast down and exceeding sorrowful.

61. And when the chief men of the Kopurhedds assembled themselves together to take counsel as they had appointed, so it was that their lips were sealed again, and they sat silently looking upon each other, for they were in great extremity, and were at their wits' end. And after a time they arose and went out one after another, saying nothing.

62. And they appointed yet another day for their assembling, For they said, Peradventure some disaster may yet be vouchsafed unto us.

63. But it came to pass that before the day of this third assembling was come, another of the chief captains of Abraham, whose name was Nathaniel, had taken another city, which was upon the Father of the Waters, even the city which is called after the great river Hittson. And this was the last city which was held by the Phiretahs on the banks of the Father of the Waters; so that after they were driven out thereof the ships of the men of Unculpsalm, even their ships of merchandise, and their ships of war, could go up and down that river through the whole length of the land of Unculpsalm.

64. And the news thereof came quickly unto the city of Gotham; and when the chief men of the Kopur-hedds assembled themselves together for the third time, they came as men having no hope.

65. And again they sat each man looking in the face of his neighbor, and they said nothing.

66. Then after they had sat a long while, suddenly there appeared among them Phernandiwud, who was not bidden unto their assembly. And they were astonished.

67. And Phernandiwud said unto them, Why sit he here silent, doing nothing?

68. And looking up they could answer him but one word,

69. Knsuvvutiv.

70. Then said Phernandiwud, Give Knsuvvutism to Beelzebub, Ye cannot serve two masters (for he had searched the scriptures and found therein something more to his advantage): ye cannot be for the war and against the means of carrying on the war. Ye cannot serve Jeph and Abraham.

71. Go to, then; there needeth a new administration of the gospel of peace, and it shall now be wanting; even such a ministration as there hath not been before this day; a ministration unto which the ministrations of Pfestenbruux unto Charles the Summoner, and of Isaiah the Hittite unto Philip of Athens, and my ministration unto the watchmen which be now the watchmen of Ken Edee, were as nothing; even as knsuvvutism. Go to. Do not the Pahdees goveru Gotham?

72. And he turned and left the assembly. And they wist well what he meant, and they rejoiced in their hearts; but they said we wash our hands of this matter.

73. Now even so did Pilate likewise wash his hands of that other matter.

74. For he also was a knsuvvutiv.

DUTCH FLAT ENQUIRER.

SATURDAY MORNING, FEB. 4, 1865.

Now, by St. Paul, the work goes bravely on,
The Stars and Stripes are up for Liberty,
Flag of the Nation--Talisman of the Free,
Curs'd be the hand that dares to tear thee down.

THE NEXT CONVENTION.

We begin to hear some talk, among members of the Union party, about the next County Convention, and the Stars and Stripes has already volunteered some kind advice to the County Central Committee about the manner in which the Convention should be called and constituted.

It is well enough, in the first place, for members of the party to bear in mind that County Central Committees are not all-powerful and irresponsible bodies, and can do no act which the party is morally bound to endorse or sustain, unless that act is expressly authorized by the Convention which elected the Committee, or warranted by precedent or the usages of the party.

Were it otherwise, the great mass of the voters of a party would be completely at the mercy of a little clique, who might happen, by carelessness, or trickery, or fraud, to be chosen a County Committee, were they so disposed, and were they not bound by usage and precedent, might nominate a ticket, or so gerrymander the county as to pack the Convention with their own tools, or refuse to call a convention at all. Everybody knows how County Central Committees are chosen; usually at the close of a Convention, when the more important business is accomplished, in the midst of confusion, and when the members of the Convention are leaving for their homes. This indifference to the appointment of the Committee has arisen from the fact that it has always been understood that the Committee has but little discretion in important matters, but will be governed by the customs of the party.

Even had the County Central Committee the power to call a Convention constituted in the manner suggested by the Stars and Stripes, or in any other manner different from what has obtained ever since the organization of the county, we think it would be imprudent to do so. The Union party in this county has become so strong, and the candidates for the various positions will be so numerous, that the greatest care and prudence will have to be exercised to preserve harmony and prevent disruption of the party. The great majority of the candidates for nominations, will, of course, be defeated—many of them will be sore-headed—and some of them, judging from the late election of district collectors, will bolt the ticket and resort to every excuse for defeating the regular nominations. Would there not be a plausible excuse furnished to bolters and sore-heads, should the Central Committee depart from the time-honored and familiar usage and call and constitute a Convention in a manner different from what has ever obtained in this or any other county in the State? The Central Committee must not furnish any such excuse.

It is talked around among Union men in this section that the clique at Auburn has already "made up a slate," and will attempt to forestall the action of the next Convention, and impose "their ticket" upon the party; but we are satisfied from the men who compose the County Committee that they will not allow themselves to be used by the clique for any such purpose.

All the interest we have in this matter is, to secure the best good and triumph of the Union party, and that the members of the party throughout the county may have some little voice in deciding who shall be their candidates for officee at the coming election. From what we are able to judge from the signs of the times we think the prominent men of the party in the upper portion of the county manifest a determination not to be forestalled in their choice of officers, at least so far as they may be able to prevent it. We hope there may be no dissensions in the party, and shall do all in our power to promote its harmony.

SANITARY PARTY.—The ladies of this place will give a party at the theater on Monday evening Feb. 22nd, for the benefit of the Soldiers' Aid Society, at which there will be singing, dancing, etc. The refreshments will be furnished from a "New England Kitchen," and from the character of those having the matter in hand, all who attend may count upon having the very best of everything served in a style unsurpassed in the world. Yes, in the world; we've said it, and we mean it. Those who have any doubts as to the correctness of our assertion in this matter can convince themselves by attending the party. The tickets are only two dollars and a half. Should have been five. Don't forget the occasion and the object, and give the ladies a rousing party.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—M. E. B.—Your favor will appear in our next. In the meantime, accept our thanks.——C. R—Your communication was unavoidably crowded out this issue. ——JULIA MANNING—Your "True Story" will appear as soon as the New Gospel of Peace is ended, in the waiting for which ponder over the sins of "Phernandiwud."

GOLD AND LEGAL CURRENCY NOTES

Some four or five weeks ago we undertook to show the people the immense benefits likely to accrue to them by the adoption, in all their business transactions, here, the Legal Tender Notes of the United States. Since which time we notice that the most respectable portion of the press of the State have taken up the matter, and are now advocating the adoption of this course. No one that has noticed the prosperity of the State prior to passage of the Specific Contract Act can have failed to observe the gradual and continual contraction of business in every department of trade. Money is becoming scarcer every day, and the reason of this is, that gold being subject to the same laws of commerce which regulate other commodities, is bound to seek markets where it can be most profitably used; these markets are found in the Eastern States where capitalists have an opportunity of realizing a large interest and making permanent investments. Our miners, small traders, and the people generally, are loosing a portion of their earnings daily by the persistent manner in which they adhere to a gold medium when those with whom they trade are using a different currency. The importers buy articles in New York with "greenbacks" at a depreciation of fifty cents on the dollar and sell the same articles to the people here at an advance of twenty per cent. on the purchase and compel us to in gold what they obtained for legal tender notes, thereby doubling their capital on the original purchase besides realizing a handsome profit outside of the transaction in the difference between gold and paper currency. We can purchase the same articles in Philadelphia, New York and Boston with legal tender notes, and with the same number of dollars expressed on the face of the notes that we can obtain in San Francisco for a like amount in gold, in other words, what costs us a thousand dollars in San Francisco can be purchased in New York for five hundred dollars! Is there any reason why this state of affairs should exist, or any sense or justice that the laboring classes should be further taxed that a few importers and pompous bankers should have their coffers overflow from the earnings of the poor man? We think not.

We invite attention to the extract below from the Sacramento Bee, which puts the matter in a light that cannot fail to convince the unprejudiced that a continuation in the present course will be suicidal to our best interests. The following is the extract:

"It has now been some months since the Courts decided upon the validity of Specific Contract Act, yet complaints of dull times among all classes of business men are more rife than ever. Without doubt business is duller, times harder, and money scarcer in the State now than ever. The commercial papers in San Francisco have frequently told us that capital was coming into the country, but the country has failed to see it. New banks have been started at the Bay, and they appear to be doing a flourishing business, but the State has not been benefited by them. They do not aid our public works, they do not assist in developing our resources, they afford no assistance to our agriculturalists. So far as we can see, all that they have done has been to expedite the transportation of treasure and aid in depleting the State of its wealth.

"The N. Y. World of Dec. 22, speaking of the great influx at that port of California emigrants, says the drouths have driven the population from the State. It says 'some are escaping to Colorado and Nevada: others to the colder, more wooded, and consequently better watered regions of Oregon and Washington Territory, and an immense throng is pouring back to the Atlantic States.' Our own people are apt to give the drouth more than its share of credit for the hard times they complain of. Nothing could be more erroneous. Drouths have affected us somewhat, but it was not the drouth that sent from this State to the East last year ten millions in gold more than was sent in 1863. With all the drouths, our grain, fruit and hay crops have been in excess of the demand for home consumption. The fact is, as we have often asserted, and our people will in time discover it that our troubles arise from our persistency in maintaining a financial system contrary to that prevailing among those with whom all our commercial and financial business is transacted, thus giving them the advantage over us. Our gold is worth more at the East than it is here—hence it goes there—but those who produce it do not get the benefit of the increased value. Gold will buy more land, (that is land that will yield a greater revenue), more stocks, more everything at the East than here, and there it goes to be permanently invested in stocks and lands. This is owing to the different currencies. Ten thousand dollars in gold will, in California, purchase real estate that will rent for $1,000 per annum, and it may be loaned out for $1,200 per annum. The same amount of gold in the East will purchase real estate that will produce a rental of $1,800 or invested in Government stocks will produce a revenue of $1,5000 per annum in gold. This is the reason why $14. 000,000 went from this State last year to be invested permanently at the East, and why it will keep on going so long as the advantage of currency is against us. To this great drainage of treasure—and not the drouths we are in a great measure indebted for the hard times of which we all complain."

The people should know, beyond a doubt, that those who aspire to represent them in the next Legislature, stand right upon the repeal of the Specific Contract Act before they are endorsed.

☞ The "Copperhead Saloon," at Colusa advertises to dispense Constitutional cocktails, Seymour smashes, Habeas Corpus juleps and Vallandigham eye openers. It is not to be presumed that such decoctions could be retained by Abolition stomachs.—Placer Herald.

Should think not. "Such decoctions" would vomit an alligator, say nothing of an Abolitionist. The only "beast" that is able to carry "such decoctions" is a "Copperhead."

LETTER FROM SACRAMENTO.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 2, 1865.

MR. EDITOR:—Since my last letter I have visited Auburn and Lincoln, besides having seen in this city a prominent citizen of your county; and from these and other sources I learn that the political cauldron already begins to boil in old Placer. This is rather early for the ebulition to commence, but things will get hotter instead of cooler from this time on to the day of election. I learn, with no little surprise, that there is likely to be no lack of candidates for nomination to the various county offices. But these are war times, and it speaks well for the patriotism of citizens that they are willing to have nominations forced upon them, and accept onerous offices to the detriment of their private interests, when their country is in peril and the public interest demands it.

The greatest contest will be over the nomination for Sheriff, not on account of the emoluments, of course, but because it is a position of dignity and influence, and because the man who succeeds may have, or ought to have, the honor of hanging somebody before the expiration of his term. For this nomination, I have heard mentioned Sexton, the present efficient incumbent, Poole, of Michigan Bluff, now Under Sheriff; Ladd, of Iowa Hill, and Allen Towle, of your town—all good men, all qualified for the position, and no one of them mean and contemptible enough to bolt the ticket if he does not succeed in securing the nomination. For Treasurer, I have heard Dickerson, of Todd's Valley; Richmond, of Dutch Flat, and Chamberlain, of Coon Creek, named. For Recorder, I have heard Lyon, the present incumbent, spoken of; also, Pratt, of Township No. 1, and S. R. Case, of Michigan Bluff. For Clerk, Dan. Spear or Al. Gamble will probably win; as they are par nobile fratrum, the one that succeeds will, most likely, give the other a berth in the office. The contest for Prosecuting Attorney is likely to be interesting. Tweed, Henry Fellows and Phil. Thomas compose the triumvirate who will contest for the prize. Men of positive masculine character always have enemies, and Jo. Hamilton will oppose Tweed, while Coffroth is "fornenst" Thomas. Fellows is a modest young man, of excellent character and habits and fair abilities. He has no enemies that I know of, and if elected would make a good officer. Tweed has performed the duties of the office nearly a year, with ability and success; but then he is not intellectual or honest enough to answer the purposes of Boggs & Co. Thomas has had experience in the office; besides he made a vigorous campaign last Fall in favor of Grilley for Collector in the lower district. True, Grilley was defeated and died soon after, but of course neither circumstance occurred in consequence of the support given him by Thomas, although rogues have hinted that much. The office of Coroner would be an important one did physical death follow the political death that will attach to many a defeated candidate in the coming election. But fortunately for the cause of labor such is not the fact, and hence the office of Coroner will not be sought after. So of Public Administrator and Surveyor.

For the Legislative nominations, I have heard the names of John Yule, L. B. Arnold and P. H. Sibley suggested for the Senate. Sibley will be nominated without doubt, if he gets votes enough. Arnold will make a vigorous fight, I presume, if his friends think best, while "honest John" will be "around." It is generally conceded that the Senator must come from the upper portion of the county, as the lower portion is now represented, in theory, by Judge Hale. For the Assembly, we have heard Ladd, of Iowa Hill, named; also, Case, Scott, Snyder, Craig, Pratt, Winchester, Sprague, Felix Higgins, and others, probably, who have escaped my mind. [We have heard the names of one or two gentlemen spoken of for the Senate who possess superior qualifications to any of those mentioned by our Sacramento correspondent. —ED.]

One Supervisor for each of the Supervisor districts is to be elected this Fall. These are the most important offices in the county, and the people should see to it that none but "solid," responsible men are imposed upon them as candidates for these positions. The above completes the list of offices and candidates, so far I can now remember. I know but few of the candidates personally, but hear that they are all good men and true, sound to the core upon the great question of loyalty to their country and first-rate "Anolitionists." Therefore they are all my friends, and may all the gods of Olympus, and each and every other divinity, bless and prosper them all!

I heard to-day that Captain Fitch, of Forest Hill, had resigned his commission, and retired from the army in disgust, for the reason that Ed. Hillyer, formerly of Auburn, had been recommended by Col. Curtis, of the Fourth Infantry, Cal. Vols., for promotion to the Lieutenant Colonelcy of that regiment, over Fitch, who was the senior captain. Fitch, although one of the best officers in the volunteer service on the coast, came into bad standing with the military authorities, on account of his connection with the disgraceful row which caused Capt. Rowell, of Auburn, to be cashiered and discharged from the service.

Another ball is coming off in this city, and by the papers I see the names of all the State officers among those who compose the honorary committee, except Bill Harriman, who is, no doubt, on shabby terms with the ball-goers. William, you must go to using hair oil!

UNKNOWN.

JOHN BULL VICTIMIZED BY THE SECESH. Some weeks ago a Confederate Fair was got up in Liverpool by the Rebels and their friends, ostensibly for the benefit of the Southern prisoners in the Northern States of America. A London correspondent of the Tribune says in his letter, dated the 19th ultimo:

"I heard yesterday, on good authority that nearly the whole of the money thus obtained, £6,000, had been used, 'gobbled up,' and appropriated by hard-up Confederate refugees in this country, headed by the amiable Mason, and that the dodge was started with no other intention. Also that there is a prospect of a 'jolly row' in consequence, when the business comes to be made public—the Britons engaged in it having acted in good faith, and being exceedingly disgusted at the suspected result.

LIEUTENANT GEORGE M. WRIGHT, of the Third Regular Artillery, has been sentenced by a Court-martial to forfeit all pay and be dismissed the service, on account of embezzlement and other offenses. This is the officer who hobnobs with Copperheads. At a Court-martial six months ago at Sacramento, this fellow accepted a "complimentary dinner" from Jim Coffroth.

LILLIE'S LOCK OPENED IN ONE MINUTE!

NEW YORK, September 2, 1864.

F. TILLMAN, Esq., 318 Battery street, Bet. Commercial and Clay, San Francisco.

DEAR SIR: WE NOTICE AN ADVERTISEment in your daily papers respecting the "security" of the "Lillie" lock. We are aware that you well understand this lock, and, of course, will not allow yourself to be annoyed by such representations. We have just sent for one of our men at the factory, and he, in our presence, opened one of Lillie's best safe locks, after it had been locked and the combination turned on,

By one Blow of the Hammer

Against the knob on the outside, and thereby breaking the cast iron bolt on the inside.

The whole time occupied in opening the lock was about ONE MINUTE. We send you this lock that your friends may not be deceived by false representations, etc. Respectfully, etc.,

A. B. TILTON,
WM. McFARLAND.

Any parties desirous of seeing the above mentioned lock, its insecurity and easy mode of opening the same, can call at 318 Battery street, San Francisco.

GLOUCESTER, March 26, 1864.

Messrs. TILTON & McFARLAND, Safe Manufacturers, Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen: From representations made by Mr. Lillie, I was induced to purchase one of his

So-called "Fire Proof Safes,"

On the 18th of February last, a fire occurred in our block which destroyed a number of buildings, and our own with the rest. We trusted our books, papers and all in the safe. After the fire the so-called "safe" was taken from the ruins, and on opening it we found that Everything was Destroyed.

We send you the safe, with what is left of the papers, and you will see that not one of them is legible or strong enough to sustain its own weight. Having the curiosity to know how our neighbors fared in this fire, we noticed McKenrie & Hardy just opening their safe (TILTON & McFARLAND'S make), and its contents were found to be

In Perfect Condition.

This led us to further investigation, and we found to our astonishment that from the large amount of combustible material in Messrs. McK. & H.'s cellar—such as lard, pork, etc.—their safe was subjected to a much greater heat than that of our own, we being in the clothing business and had but little in the cellar. There was another of Lillie's safes here subjected to the same fire, faring, however, no better than our own.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servants.

INVENTORS, MECHANICS, AGRICULTURISTS,
Are directed to the annual prospectus of the cheapest and best Mechanical Journal in the world.
The Illustrated Scientific American,
A New Volume of which commences Jan. 1, 1865.

THIS VALUABLE JOURNAL HAS BEEN published nineteen years, and during all this time it has been the firm and steady advocate of the Inventor, Mechanic, Manufacturer, and Farmer, and the faithful chronicler of the progress of Art, Science and Industry.

The SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN is the largest, the only reliable, and most widely circulated journal of the kind now published in the United States. It has witnessed the growth of nearly all the great inventions and discoveries of the day, most of which have been illustrated and described in its columns. It also contains a Weekly Official List of all the Patent Claims, a feature of great value to all Inventors and Patentees.

In the Mechanical Department, a full account of all improvements in Machinery will be given. Also practical articles upon the various Tools used in workshops and manufactories.

Steam and Mechanical Engineering will continue to receive careful attention, and all experiments and practical results attained will be fully recorded.

Woollen, Cotton and other Manufacturing Interests will have special attention. Also, Firearms, War Implements, Ordnance, War Vessels, Railway Machinery, Mechanics' Tools, Electric, Chemical and Mathematical Apparatus, Wood and Lumber Machines, Hydraulics, Pumps, Water-wheels, etc.; Household and FARM IMPLEMENTS—this latter department being very full and of great value to Farmers and Gardeners; Articles embracing every department of Popular Science, which everybody can understand.

Patent Law Decisions and Discussions will, as heretofore, form a prominent feature. Owing to the very large experience of the publishers, Messrs. MUNN & Co., as Solicitors of Patents, this department of the paper will possess great interest to Patentees and inventors.

The year's numbers contain several hundred superb engravings; also reliable practical recipes, useful in every shop and household. Two volumes each year, 416 pages—total, 832 pages.

Terms:—$3 per year; $1 50 for six months
Specimen Copies sent FREE.

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crises of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants. Sold by all Druggists and dealers every where. HOSTETTER, SMITH & DEAN,

CONSTABLE'S SALE.—BY VIRTUE OF an Execution to me directed and delivered, on the 14th day of January, 1865, out of the Court of O. H. Young a Justice of the Peace in and for Township No. 7. Placer county and State of California, on a judgment rendered in said Court, on the 3th day of January, A. D. 1865, in favor of James F. Brown and against W. S. Conner, for the sum of Two Hundred and Twelve 60-100 Dollars (212 60) in gold or silver coin or the equivalent, with interest thereon at the rate of two per cent. per month from the 3d day of January, A. D. 1865, together with costs of suit, taxed at Forty-three 75-100 Dollars (43 75), I have on the 14th day of January, A. D. 1865, levied upon and will expose for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in gold and silver coin or the equivalent, at the Engine House of the Rough and Ready Mining Company on Grizzly Flat, Township No. 7, Placer county and State of California,

On Monday, the 27th day of February, 1865,

At 10 o'clock, A. M., all the right, title, claim and interest which the said W. S. Conner had on the 15th day of December, A. D. 1864, or has since thereunto acquired, in and to the following named and described property, to wit: One undivided twelfth interest or share of what is known as the Rough and Ready Company's Mining Claims, situated on Grizzly Flat, Township No. 7, Placer county and State of California, together with one undivided twelfth interest or share in an Engine and fixtures belonging to the same. The said Engine is now located on the said Rough and Ready Mining Company's claims. Also, one twelfth of an interest or share in all the Company's Wood, Timbers. Tools, Cars, Sluices, fixtures and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining. All of which named and described property I will sell as aforesaid, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the above judgment, together with the costs due, and to become due thereon

HOPE FOR THE AFFLICTED.—In another part of this paper will be found the advertisement of the celebrated Institute established by Dr. J. C. YOUNG, in 1850. In this age of deceit and charlatanism it is a boon to the suffering to point out to them where they are sure of obtaining the wished for relief and cure. Under the care of the skillful Doctor the sick and troubled can divest themselves of their burdens of pain; lay aside their cross, and secure health and happiness. If you are sick or in trouble, do not hesitate. Read the advertisement and follow the advice. Do not forget the number nor the manner of directing your letter. MY NEIGHBOR'S WIFE.

We are taught to love; from childhood's years
'Twas stamped upon my mind;
My earliest article of faith
Was love for human kind;
To love my neighbors as myself,
Is Christian-like they say,
And if I love my neighbor's wife,
How can I help it, pray?

The golden rule I strive to heed,
Wherever I may be,
And do to others as I would
That they should do to me;
And so, one day, I thought 'twere well
If I this precept tried,
And, filled with generous thoughts, I took
My neighbor's wife to ride.

But ah! this kind and simple act
Gave rise to slanders high;
A host of furious tongues assailed
My neighbor's wife and I.
We are taught to share with liberal hearts,
The blessings that we prize—
To smile with others when they smile.
And dry the mourner's eyes.

And when one day I chanced to find
My neighbor's wife in tears,
I whispered words of sympathy,
Within her listening ears;
I drew her trembling form to mine,
And kissed her tears away;
The act was seen; and lo! there was
The very deuce to pay.

Alas! alas! 'tis passing strange—
I'm sure I can't see through it;
I'm told to love with all my heart,
Then blamed because I do it;
The precept that I learned in youth
Will cling to me through life;
I TRY to love my neighbor, and
I'm sure I love his wife.

FAMILY COURTESIES.—In the family the law of pleasing ought to extend from the highest to the lowest. You are bound to please your children; and your children are bound to please each other; and you are bound to please your servants, if you expect them to please you. Some men are pleasant in the household, and nowhere else. I have known such men. They were good fathers and kind husbands. If you had seen them in their own home you would have thought them almost angels; but if you had seen them in the street, or in the counting house, or anywhere else outside of their own house, you would have thought them almost demoniac. But the opponite is apt to be the case. When we are among our neighbors, or among strangers, we hold ourselves with self-respect, and endeavor to act with propriety; but when we go home, we say to ourselves, "I have played a part long enough, and now I am going to be natural." So we sit down, and are ugly, snappish, blunt and disagreeable. We lay aside those little courtesses that make the roughest floor smooth, and make the hardest things like velvet, and which make life pleasant. We expend all our politeness in places where it will be profitable—where it will bring silver and gold.

HOW PETROLEUM IS FORMED.—We may set it down as an axiom that nature is not only capable of producing now all articles that she has ever produced, but that she is, and will continue to produce them until she substitute something better. Perhaps our meaning will be better understood by applying it to a single article. Suppose, for instance, we take one in which we all have so deep an interest—petroleum. This is known to be a hydro carbon, composed of two gasses.

These gasses are primary elements, indestructible and exhaustless in quantity. One of them, hydrogen, is a constituent of water and of course is inexhaustible as the ocean. The other is a constituent in all vegetable forms, and in many of our rocks. One hundred pounds of limestone, when burned, will weigh but sixty pounds. The part driven off by burning is carbonic acid. Underlying the "Oil Rock" is a stratum of limestone, of unknown thickness, known to be upward of one thousand feet in depth. The water falling on the surface and percolating through the porous sand stone that overlies the oil rocks, becomes charged with salt, potash, saltpetre, and other chemical ingredients, and finally reaches the limestone rock and decomposes it—the carbon in the rock and the hydrogen of the water uniting to form oil, while the oxygen is set free to ascend to the atmosphere, or unite with minerals and form oxydes. The reverse of this process is seen in burning the oil in a lamp—the oxygen in the atmosphere uniting with the carbon in the oil, forming carbonic acid, and with the hydrogen forming water—thus completing the circle. The question is frequently asked, when will the oil become exhausted? We may answer, when the ocean is and not before.—Pittsburg Chronicle.

CREAM CHEESE.—An enquiry in the London Field for a receipt for making cream cheese was replied to as follows by three correspondents:

We put a quart of cream into a clean jug, with half a teaspoonful of salt stirred in, and let it stand a day or two till thickish. Then we fold an ordinary grass cloth about six or eight times and sprinkle it with salt, then lay it in a sieve about eight inches in diameter. The sides of the cloth should come up well over the sides. Then pour in the cream and sprinkle a little salt on it. Change the cloth as often as it becomes moist, ahd as the cheese dries press it with the cloth and sieve. In about a week or nine days if will be prime and fit to eat. The air alone suffices to turn the cream into cheese.

Take about a half pint of cream, tie it up in a piece of thin muslin and suspend it in a cool place. After five or six days take it out of the muslin and put it between two plates, with a small weight on the upper one. This will make it a good shape for the table, and also help to ripen the cheese, which will be fit to use in about eight days from the commencement of the making.

Take a quart of cream, either fresh or sour, mix about a saltspoonful of salt aud the same quantity of sugar. Put it in a cloth with a wet outside, hang it up and change the cloth every other day; in ten days it will be fit for use."

ON one of the New Haven Roads, not long since, was a live woman in a close pine box, being taken from Rygate, Vt., to San Francisco, Cal. Her name is Mrs. Lowe, and her disease an affection of the brain, and to protect her from the noise incident to the journey, this mode of transportation was resorted to. The box was about three feet high and three feet wide, and lying enough to accommodate the occupant. Inside was a bed on which the patient lay, and the inside was muffled to prevent any noise from reaching her. A small aperture was made in the side of the box to admit air, and the whole contrivance, which seemed at first a severity, was the most considerate kindness.

LET no man drop an ill-gotten guinea into his pocket, and think the pocket unconscious of the wrong. His very glove shall babble of the bribe that has burnt his hand, and his cravat will tighten like a rope about his neck.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

The only Remedy for Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsical Swellings, Genital Debility, Etc.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS attended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivaled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above mentioned, and also

DIABETES,
IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET,
FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorders or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revived and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MRDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

Irritation of the neck of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, and Catarrh of the Bladder, Strangury or Burning, or Painful Urinating, Calculus, Gravel, Brick-dust Deposit, and Mucous or Milky Disharges after Urinating.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and to much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give your praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

MALES AND FEMALES,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

PRIVATE MEDICAL INSTITUTE

Established by
DR. J. C. YOUNG, IN 1850,
For the Cure of Private Diseases of whatever naure
AND ALL FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

CONSULTING OFFICE,
540 WASHINGTON STREET,
SAN FRANCISCO, : : : : : CALIFORNIA
NO CURE, NO PAY.

THIS CELEBRATED INSTITUTE has enjoyed on this coast an uninterupted success of fourteen years, and has become one of the renowned Hospitals of the age. What the celebrated Lock Hospital is to London, and the no less renowned establishment of Ricord is to Paris, this Institute has become to the Pacific coast. The thousands annually received and cured place it in point of number of patients among the very first of the world, and the success of its treatment ranks it second to none.

PRIVATE DISEASES IN MALES and IRREGULARITIES IN FEMALES are the great destroyers of health. They insidiously attack the system and gradually undermine and destroy it; they drive the bloom from the cheek, the lustre from the eye, the strength and vigor from the frame; they give to the world puny and diseased offspring, and poison, through successive generations the race of man. The marks can be seen in Scrofula, Consumption, Cripples, the Idiotic, the Paralytic, the Insane, etc.

There is no more terrible scourge to the human race than those diseases arising from the contamination of Venerial Poison. The mildest forms, by retreating to the blood, hold ever over the one afflicted, the sword of destruction that is liable at any moment to fall and blight—to utterly destroy—all earthly hopes.

MERCURY, recognized as the most fatal medical enemy to man, combining with the Venerial, doubles in dangers. Those who have been treated with that pernicious mineral poison are not cured: the disease has only assumed a new form.

Do not be satisfied with partial cures that leave the poison to crawl through the system, eating its way into the tissues and organs beneath the apparently smooth surface, to burst out in the future with a virulence that will baffle the effects of medicine. WHEN PERFECT CURES can be obtained by consulting a physician whom long practice and thorough investigation into the causes of DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS enables to determine at once the nature of the disease.

In all diseasses entrusted to the Doctor's care, PERFECT, SPEEDY and PERMANENT

Cures are Always Guaranteed,

In syphilis and its adjuncts; Gonnorhœa and its accompanying diseases; and all disorders of the Bladder, Kidneys and prostrate; Seminal Weakness; Diseases of the Heart and Lungs; Dyspepsia; Indigestion, Impotency; Incipient Consumption, and all diseases of the urinary organs, in either sex, cure always warranted, OR NO PAY REQUIRED at the PRIVATE

SFMINAL WEAKNESS OR SPERMATORROEA.

The young man who experiences that growing weakness in his muscular and mental organization should stop to consider whence it arises. He will find in the weakness of the back, trembling of the limbs, disordered digestion, unaccountable failing of the powers of the mind, distaste for society, dread of impending trouble, forebodings of evil, sleeplessness, troubled and lacivious dreams accompanied by growing deafness, loss of muscular power, and numerous other symptoms of disorganization, the positive traces of that most terrible and destructive of all diseases, Seminal Weakness—wasting away his powers, destroying his hope of life and manhood, and dragging him along the broken path of his existence toward a premature and loathsome grave. To him who finds his life dribbling out in the discharge of the vital principal of existence in nocturnal and diurnal emissions, the mere cessation of its appearance brings no assurance of relief.

Marriage, that holy office, the safeguard and hope of manhood, brings to such an one no hope of cure, but adds to his misery in the knowledge that the one who looks to him for so much of her happiness, is a victim of his evil, and an innocent companion of his punishment. He adds to his misery and disorder until hope leaves him. There is no rescue except in proper and skillful treatment. Consult, then, at once, a physician whom long practice and careful research has made thoroughly conversant with every phase of the disease. Those who have become the victims of solitary vices, that dreadful, fascinating and destructive habit, which fills thousands of sick rooms with paralytics and consumptives, and hundreds of untimely graves with its misguided victims, should consult, without a moment's delay, one who will sympathize with their sufferings. To such the Doctor would especially address himself, giving to each and all assurance of a PERFECT and PERMANENT CURE, without hindrance from business, change of diet, or fear of exposure.

Do not forget the address. See below.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease, and requires medical or surgical assistance, the enquiry should be, Where is there a physician who is fully competent to administer relief, and whose respectable standing in society recommends him to the confidence of the community? The Doctor, understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to interpose, and by the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases, both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but in as thorough a manner as years of study and practice—both in hospitals and private families—can make, to save them from the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous and designing. Therefore families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who can feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble—one in whose secrecy and the utmost confidence can be placed. Consultation, by letter or otherwise, Free. See address below.

THE CELEBRATED FEMALE REMEDIES, compounded from the private prescription of Dr. Young, have now obtained a most extended popularity, and are correctly viewed to be the safest and surest remedies or the complaints for which they are applied. The constanly accruing testimonials of their efficacy declare them to be pre-eminently superior in their action. No lady should be without these Renovating Agents. None genuine unless procured at this office.

PUTNAM MANUFACTURING CO.,

S. C. NORTHROP, Agent.

WHAT EVERYBODY KNOWS:

That Iron well galvanized will not rust; that a simple machine is better than a complicated one; that a wringer should be self adjusting and efficient; that thumb-screws and fastenings cause delay and trouble to regulate and keep in order; that wood soaked in hot water will swell, shrink and split; that wood bearings for a shaft to run in will wear out; that the Putnam Wringer, with or without cog-wheels, will not tear the clothes; that cog-wheel regulators are not essential, that the Putnam Wringer has ALL the advantages, and not one of the disadvantages above named; that all who have tested it, pronounce it the best Wringer ever made; that it will wring a Thread or a Bed-Quilt without alteration.

We might fill the paper with testimonials, but only insert a few to convince the skeptical, if such there be; and we say to all, TEST PUTNAM'S Wringer. Test it thoroughly with ANY and ALL others, and if not entirely satisfactory, return it.

Putnam Manufacturing Co., Gentlemen:—I know from practical experience that iron well galvanized with zinc will not oxidize or rust one particle. The Putnam Wringer is as near perfect as possible, and I can cheerfully recommend it to be the best in use.

Respectfully yours, JNO. W. WHEELER,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Many years' experience in the galvanizing business enable me to indorse the above statement in all particulars. JNO. C. LEFFERTS,
New York, Jan. 1864. No. 100 Beekman str.

We have tested Putnam's Wringer by practical working and know that it will do. It is cheap; it is simple; it requires no room, whether at work or at rest; a child can operate it; it does its duty thoroughly; it saves time and its saves wear and tear. We earnestly advise all who have much washing to do, with all intelligent persons who have any, to buy this Wringer. It will pay for itself in a year at most.
